

Refund Policy for Workshops

In the event you are unable to attend a class or workshop that you have paid for, your options for a refund are as follows.

Option 1

You can apply your payment toward another workshop in the same calendar year. Please check our Register page for upcoming workshops and email your preference to info@hoffmanarts.org to be added to the roster.

Option 2

You can opt to consider your payment as a donation—either as a scholarship for others to use for a workshop or as a general donation to the Hoffman Center for the Arts. Thank you for considering this option!

Option 3

You may receive a refund for the payment amount, less a $5 handling fee. If you registered via PayPal, your refund will be processed via PayPal. Otherwise, a check will be mailed to you for the amount of the tuition less the handling fee.

Workshop Cancellations

If the workshop is cancelled by the Hoffman Center for the Arts due to low registration, the entire payment amount will be refunded to you via PayPal or check, depending upon how it was paid for.
