Author Event ~ Mark Pomeroy

Mark Pomeroy
Friday, May 3 | 7:30pm
Cost: $7
Pre-registration encouraged
Walk-ins welcomed

Join us for an evening with author Mark Pomeroy, who will read from his latest novel Tigers of Lents.

The Tigers of Lents is the story of the Garrison family. At the heart of it, the three Garrison sisters: Sara, the eldest, a fiery soccer star on the verge of pulling herself out of the life of poverty she's always known; Elaine, shy and struggling with the weight she carries both physically and mentally; and Rachel, a reader and poet whose imagination stalls at trying to picture a better life.

About Mark Pomeroy

Mark Pomeroy lives with his family in Portland, Oregon, where he was born and raised. In 2014 Oregon State University Press published his first novel, The Brightwood Stillness, which The Oregonian called "absorbing and humane." He has received an Oregon Literary Fellowship for fiction, and his short stories, poems, and essays have appeared in Open Spaces, Portland Magazine, The Wordstock 10, NW Book Lovers, The Oregonian, and What Teaching Means: Stories from America's Classrooms. For the past twenty-eight years he has led creative writing workshops in Portland schools. University of Iowa Press will publish his second novel, The Tigers of Lents, in 2024.
