

Clay Workshop - Shared Techniques from Japanese Potters

About the workshop

The Hokkaido Potters Society and The Oregon Potters Association (OPA) have a long-standing relationship, sharing exhibits, studio demonstrations, and workshops in both Japan and Oregon. OPA representatives traveled to Hokkaido where they learned a shellac resist technique that they will share at the Hoffman Center.

About the instructors

The ambassador instructor team for this workshop will be Roberta Lampert and Jenny Watson.

Roberta Lampert has worked as a studio potter in the Portland area since 1978. She earned a BFA from NY State College of Ceramics and an MA from University of Iowa. She is a founding member of OPA.

Jenny Watson is now a full-time potter. Her art is mostly thrown and altered ceramics used in daily life decorated with underglazes and celadons.
